

LOUISVILLE TIMES

LOUISVILLE:
JOHN G. BULLOCK & JOHN C. NOBLE, EDITORS

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES BUCHANAN,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE,
OF KENTUCKY.

Electoral Ticket.
For the State at large—HON. ELIJAH BISS, and COL. JOHN W. STEVENSON.
First District—COL. R. D. GRIFFIN.
Second District—JOHN P. DEVEREUX.
Third District—JOHN A. HICKS.
Fourth District—TOMLINSON CRAYVEN.
Fifth District—BERNARD MAGOFFIN.
Sixth District—B. F. RICE.
Seventh District—W. D. REED.
Eighth District—B. W. WOOLLEY.
Ninth District—R. H. STANTON.
Tenth District—BIRAM KELSEY.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1856.

We copy the following eloquent article from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

All that New York!—The Union accomplished.

The telegraphic wires have, ere this, communicated the glad tidings all over the United States, that the Democracy of New York are once more united and on the high road to victory.

The late State Convention, "Band" and "Soft," which commenced at Syracuse, came to a happy close at Albany, and nominated a complete electoral and State ticket, which will triumphantly carry New York by a large majority.

The nominations for Governor and Lieutenant Governor could not have been improved, and were the very men demanded by the circumstances of the times. Amasa J. Parker, the gubernatorial candidate, is a gentleman of superior talents and high character, who, for many years, has been a distinguished Judge of the Supreme Court. His judicial position has prevented his participating in the hard and soft difficulties, and he is, therefore, acceptable to the whole Democracy. His name, together with that of Judge Vanderbilt, is eminently popular with the Democracy, and will greatly strengthen the Buchanan electoral ticket.

The electors at large—Addison Gardner and David L. Seymour—are men who have acquired national reputations. The former was Lieutenant Governor with Silas Wright in 1844, and the latter, the highest Tribunal in the State, which body he is adorned by his talents; and the latter, Mr. Seymour, has been a distinguished member of Congress for many years from the county of Rensselaer.

The greatest enthusiasm and good feeling seem to have characterized the deliberations of this important meeting of the united New York Democracy, whose harmonious action will give confidence to the friends of Buchanan and Breckinridge in every part of the country.

Neither Fremont nor Fillmore now stand the slightest chance in the Empire State, as there has been no time within the last three years that the united Democracy did not have a majority of many thousands, had it been concentrated, as it will be this year.

The election in Louisville.

There was an election held in this city yesterday, but the Know-Nothings had it all their own way. But few Democrats went to the polls, nor could they be persuaded to do so. Numbers of the very best Democrats in the city positively refused to vote. They preferred that the election should go by default, than to enter the contest unopposed and unprepared, where a partial Democratic vote could be given. As for the Germans, they nearly all left the city, with their families, on Saturday, Sunday, and yesterday morning, apprehending rioting and mobs on the part of the Know-Nothings. The city is yet under "the reign of terror," although there was no rioting yesterday.

The Know-Nothings were busy all day, and doubtless routed their full strength.

Rebent and Corruption.—The Republican have bought up and subsidized many newspapers in this contest, by money furnished from Kansas aid subscriptions and the Mariposa grant.

They lately attempted to buy up the Hollander, a staunch Democratic paper in Ottawa county, Michigan. They offered large sums of money to the editor if he would strike the Buchanan flag and run up that of Fremont; but he, like an honest man, spurned their corrupt offers, and resolved not to sell his principles and his country for gold.

Judge Bradley has ordered an injunction against the Commissioners of the People's Bank at Bowling Green, restraining their further acting in that capacity, and particularly from holding an election for Directors. The Commissioners may also be enjoined on the 20th of August, if they have any, why the injunction shall not be continued.

The New York Citizen, John Mitchell's paper—is going for Buchanan. What becomes of the Know-Nothing beast that the foreigners are all going for Fremont? The Citizen is one of the ablest papers in the Union, with a circulation of upwards of 20,000, and is edited and controlled by Irish patriots, who came to this country to enjoy that peace and liberty of which they were deprived in Europe.

Ohio County.—We have the most cheering news from this county. The Democrats are carrying everything before them.

Cassius M. Clay, of this State is canvassing Indiana in behalf of the nigger worshippers.

The New Orleans Bulletin, of the 26th says that the city continued perfectly healthy. There was no sign of any epidemic.

Gov. Wright is canvassing Southern Indiana with great power and effect. His speeches everywhere, are listened to with the profound attention, by immense masses of people. There are but few effective speakers in the West.

The New York Herald says of itself: "The New York Herald adheres to the independent masses of the people, and is for them and with them in the great work of a sweeping revolution in the government."

Bennett is too modest entirely. Why did he not add, And for an independent office with a sweeping salary—in France?

LAMORSE WILL GIVE 25,000.—A correspondent of the Pennsylvania, writing from Springfield, Illinois, says:

"From the best and most reliable information I have been able to procure, there seems to be no prevailing impression, and that the majority for Buchanan and Breckinridge in Illinois will not fall short of, but more likely exceed, twenty-five thousand."

The Bowling Green Standard has the following items:

John A. Finn, Democratic elector, made a speech at Jamestown, last Saturday. Mr. Sampson, of Glasgow, answered him. After Mr. Sampson had concluded, Mr. Finn arose and announced six withdrawals from the Know-Nothing cause. He then said: "I have met Mr. Finn upon my own ground, and like Sampson of old, he may pull down upon his head the Temple of Know-Nothingness, and crash into atoms the foundation of his infidelity."

We learn there were four or five withdrawals from the Know-Nothing in Scottsville on last Saturday. Allen is good for Buchanan by 200, if the Democrats do but half their duty.

From Nicaragua.

The Granada left San Juan on the 21st inst. Gen. Walker had been elected President by an overwhelming majority. He was inaugurated on the 12th inst., with imposing ceremonies. Don Jimen Ferrer, the provisional President, delivered an address, resigning the reins of office, and administered the official oath to Gen. Walker, in the presence of an immense and enthusiastic assemblage. Gen. Walker answered in the following:

DIAGNOSTIC ADDRESS.

In assuming the duties of the Presidency of the Republic, I feel deeply the disabilities and responsibilities which the office involves. The State is menaced by dangers from without and within, and there is need of sleepless vigilance and untiring exertion to preserve the Government from the enemies of its peace.

In order, therefore, to administer properly the affairs of the Republic, I require all the assistance I can derive from the patriotic and able citizens, and from the skill, talent and energy of the Republic's soldiers. On them, and the Divine Providence which controls and directs the course of states and empires, I rely for assistance in the proper discharge of the duties of this day assume.

The Republic has reached an era in its history not second in importance to the day of her independence from the Spanish monarchy. The 16th of September of this day assume, the revolutionary epoch of Nicaragua. I hope this day may be its close. The struggles of thirty-five years have, it is to be hoped, taught the people that the only way to preserve the Republic is by the maintenance of the Republic's independence, and that the only way to preserve the Republic's independence is by the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

Not only is internal order required for the advancement of material wealth and prosperity, but the Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence. The Republic's independence is required for the maintenance of the Republic's independence.

LETTER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, JULY 24, 1856.

GENTLEMEN:—A marked peculiarity of this city is to be found in the modes of living among different classes. I cannot tell you how those here who herd in dens where no decent person can go. The lowest grade to which public attention is invited is the lowest, whether half vagabonds or those of genteel appearance. These secure a sleeping place unknown probably to any but the police, and frequently as the police of vice in the other sex. For eating they resort to cabarets, cafés, drinking saloons, and hotel bars. The most needy find places where half a dime procures them a drink and as much coarse food as they can devour from 10 o'clock A.M. to 1 P.M. They lay in enough of solids and liquids during these three hours to last them the day, or such part of the day as they spend out of their dens. The more genteel classes manage to get a cup of coffee and slice of bread at one of the market houses in the morning, and then from 10 o'clock until night visit the saloons where they pay for their drinks and eat as much as they please, sometimes living very well for some days or fifty cents a day for liquids and a regular dinner of saloons also live in this way, whether loafers, beggars, or the lowest of all classes, on the contrary, have houses generally frequented by the cafés for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning, which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they frequent the saloons in a billiard room, and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at other hours chess, checkers, or other substantial amusements. In the winter months, however, they are also the eating places of bachelors, temporary residents and gentlemen having no home. They frequent the saloons for coffee, chocolate,

